

Anti-Bribery and Corruption Training

The Good Governance department of the Sustainability Office held the “C.P. Fight Against Corruption and Fraud” seminar attended by over 400 of C.P. management, including Mr. Noppadol Dej-Udom, The Vice Chairman of the Sustainability Office, to reiterate the importance of tackling corruption.

The honored Guest Speaker was The Assistant Secretary-General of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC) who imparted his expertise and extensive experience on Anti-Corruption and Anti-Bribery laws, in addition to engaging the audience with case studies that the audience can apply in practice.

