

Corporate Governance Training

The Good Governance Department of the Sustainability, Good Governance and Corporate Communication Office held a “Corporate Governance Session” for representatives from HR and representatives from business units and unlisted companies of C.P. Group. The purpose of the session was to enhance their understanding in corporate governance in order to raise the overall governance standards throughout C.P. Group.

