

Disclosure and Transparency Training

The Good Governance department of the Sustainability Office held training sessions on “Disclosure and Transparency” for over 70 of its directors and senior executives.

A Senior Partner from Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLC was invited as the guest speaker and expert to provide a better understanding on how to handle conflict of interest; connected transactions; shares and securities dealings; and the roles and responsibilities of directors and executives on how to deal with these issues.

